

PLEDGE GIVEN TO AID ALASKA IN MANY WAYS

Administration Officials Promise Strong Co-Operation

(By The Associated Press)
ANCHORAGE, Alaska, July 18.—A pledge that steps would be taken within three months which would place Alaska more in the way of progress than ever before has been given by the people of the territory by Herbert Hoover, secretary of the department of commerce. Speaking last night at a dinner of the chamber of commerce the secretary said:

"Within the next three months we shall effect some measures which will coordinate Alaska better than heretofore so that out of this we may do something worth doing. The greatest thing we might do is to establish happy co-operation, to build a new country so that Alaska will have a greater mission and vision to America than the matter of control of her fisheries and lands. She has the building of a great state."

Develop Great States
Secretary Hoover pointed out that Alaska would be developed in great measure like Oklahoma and California "but some day would develop four or five great states."

"This," he said, "must come by steady accretion of people, step by step, that comes here to obtain a better livelihood and a better standard of living. We must remember it is a place of greater possibility and of tremendous resources and there can be no full self government until you are able to carry that burden."

At a fisheries hearing Secretary Hoover took a vote on the question, "shall we abolish big game?" and received an unanimous vote.

Adopt Broad Policy

Mr. Hoover announced that a broad policy would be adopted and that there would be rules governing each district separately. He said that a blanket reservation would be unsatisfactory.

William Spry, former governor of Utah and an commissioner of the general land office stated to The Associated Press:

"We must relax the restrictions and encourage big capital to come to Alaska and include a more liberal policy toward mining and coal lands."

This was seconded by Secretary Work of the interior department who said many things are needed for developing Alaska's resources—more liberality and an easier way of doing than has been done heretofore.

KU KLUX IN FAVOR OF IMMIGRATION RESTRICTION LAW

Offer Resolutions Also Declaring for Law Enforcement

(By The Associated Press)
ASHEVILLE, N. C., July 18.—Resolutions declaring that the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan stand firmly for law enforcement and properly constituted officials were adopted by the Grand Dragons and Great Klans of the order who adjourned their annual conference here today, according to announcement by Klan officials. The resolutions condemned any persons "who might seek to take the law into their own hands."

Another resolution adopted by the conference placed the Klan on record as opposing unrestricted foreign immigration and favoring even more drastic immigration laws. The representatives of the Klan organizations in the various states unanimously voted their support and confidence in Dr. H. W. Evans, imperial wizard and his national administration, voiced their endorsement of his policies.

Wants Membership Roll

Klan calling on them to produce records of the Klan showing membership of the Fairmount klavern by the clerk of the courts of Robeson county where the trial of Mike Lawson, chief of police of Fairmont, Johnson Hedgepath and Hugh Bronson are being tried on charges growing out of the flogging of Mrs. Mary Watson and Mrs. Hattie Purvis.

The Klan is also ordered to produce all records showing the connection of Chief of Police Lawson, if any, with the Klan.

CRUSADE BEGUN BY I. W. W.'S AGAINST PORT ARTHUR, TEX.

Reported Members Enroute from All Parts of World

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, July 18.—Firmly believing in the efficacy of "direct action" hundreds of members of the I. W. W. are leaving here tonight on a crusade to Port Arthur, Texas, their object of which is the "protection of the I. W. W. constitution" and the rights of three members said to have been kidnapped and severely beaten there.

"We don't believe in doing things by official delegation. When there is a job to be done by the I. W. W., the rank and file go to it without bothering about their officials," is the report on the exodus giving by local headquarters of the marine transport workers branch of the organization.

Mode of Travel Puzzle.
How the men will cover the 2,800 miles to Port Arthur is regarded at headquarters as a minor detail. More than 20,000 of them are on the move from all parts of the country, on foot, by freight train and by sea, according to John Shuskie, the secretary-treasurer.

Coincidentally with the I. W. W. exodus came a pledge from the Civil Liberties Union to the general defense committee of the I. W. W. in California to help in the fight against the recent injunction which renders membership in the I. W. W. in that state contempt of court, punishable by a prison term of six months.

"The injunction which followed the declaration of a general I. W. W. strike in California comes as a result of the pressure of corporations," asserts the Civil Liberties Union and is unconstitutional.

JOHNSON LEAD WELL OVER THE 90,000 MARK

Union Head Attaches Significance to Election

(By The Associated Press)
ST. PAUL, Minn., July 18.—A few scattering additional returns from Monday's senatorial election that dribbled in late today, continued to raise the plurality of Magnus Johnson, Farmer-Laborite, and his lead kept up its march toward the 90,000 mark. Johnson's lead over Governor J. A. O. Preus, Republican, when 3,086 of the state's 3,520 precincts had reported was 83,763 the vote for those precincts giving Johnson 271,400; Preus 187,635 and James A. Carley, Democrat 18,417.

In the unreported precincts Johnson is expected to maintain at least a two to one lead assuring him of a plurality in excess of 90,000.

BACK TO PEOPLE

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 18.—The election of Magnus Johnson as United States senator from Minnesota is in the opinion of E. J. Manion, president of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers, evidence that the people are restoring the control of the government to the people. In a statement issued here tonight Mr. Manion declared:

"The election of Magnus Johnson as United States senator from Minnesota is gratifying evidence that the ordinary citizen is engaged in restoring the control of government to the people. The attempt to make it appear that the election of Mr. Johnson was solely occasioned by the revolt of farmers at the loss of a dollar wheat as far fetched. The best evidence of the truth of that assertion can be found in the result of the election, when the people of the cities and towns rolled up equally as good majorities for Mr. Johnson as did the farmers."

GANNA LESS HEFTY BUT MORE ELUSIVE

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, July 18.—Ganna Walska McCormick less heftily but more elusively, than ever, tempted for a convention of alert reporters waiting outside her state room on the incoming Olympic today, by making her escape thru an adjoining room.

Harold F. McCormick, millionaire, her husband, showed his contempt for the judgment of Paris critics on his wife's recent performance in "Rigoletto" by grabbing his lady at the foot of the gang plank and kissing her on both cheeks of her mouth.

Mme. Walska's return to New York was as quiet as her trip across. Her only companions on the Olympic it was said, were Karl K. Kitchen, the writer and Mrs. Kitchen.

She refused to discuss her recent debut in Paris opera, where she was rather roughly handled by French critics, and would not even talk about her reported plans to enter musical comedy, radioed from the ship in her name last night.

Mrs. Walska said she would remain in New York at the McCormick town house for a while and then go to Chicago.

TRADES BABY FOR HORSE AND BUGGY

(By The Associated Press)

The woman said she and her husband had been leading a gypsy life and that the husband had engaged in horse trading for several years. ## Three Main Points Holding Up Treaty

(By The Associated Press)
LAUSANNE, July 18.—The Turko-American treaty negotiations are delayed over three main points, which probably will require further conferences between Joseph C. Grew and Ismet Pasha before real progress can be achieved in drafting the new treaty. The United States wants Turkey to recognize in the treaty the American naturalization laws, but the Turks point out that Turkish laws prevent Turkish subjects who become citizens of other countries from returning to Turkey. If the Americans insist on such recognition the Turks will demand that the provisions relating to Turkish subjects shall be added to the treaty clause. But the Americans cannot accept any treaty denial of the rights of American citizens and the subject has been left for further consideration.

Turkish Respect
The Turkish experts realize that whatever may be the outcome of the negotiations on this question, the United States government will always insist upon suitable respect for the rights of Americans, and as a matter of fact, the American representatives say they proposed their clause merely to facilitate the protection of American citizens by Turkish officials and reduce the possibility of misunderstandings.

The second point of discord concerns claims of American citizens and companies against the Turkish government for damages suffered during the war. The American delegates proposed the appointment of a mixed arbitration tribunal to adjudicate all claims, but the Turks assert that they cannot consent themselves to arbitration without knowing something of the amount of claims.

The Americans are unable to present approximate figures and say they are more interested in the principle than in the money involved.

Treatment of Americans

The third subject temporarily left aside is the kind of treatment to be accorded American general provisions of the convention for the regime governing foreigners. The Americans want the same provisions for American citizens to engage in business and professions as the citizens of other countries. The difficulty here will probably be settled in conferences between Mr. Grew and Ismet Pasha.

Ismet and the entire Turkish delegation have arranged to leave for Ankara next Wednesday so that if the Turko-American treaty is to be signed at Lausanne the negotiations must be hurried.

MAUGHN TO START HIS SECOND DAWN TO DUSK ATTEMPT

Itinerary Will be the Same as On Previous Occasion

(By The Associated Press)
MITCHELL FIELD, N. Y., July 18.—Lieutenant Russell Maughn was in readiness tonight for his expected take-off at 3:30 eastern standard time tomorrow morning in a second attempt to fly across the continent between dawn and dark. A test flight this afternoon proved his plane to be in perfect condition. Weather conditions were reported favorable.

Lieutenant Maughn's first attempt, July 9, was frustrated when the gasoline feed pipe became clogged, forcing him down near St. Joseph, Mo.

Will Follow Same Course
On this night he will follow the same itinerary, which calls for four stops enroute: McCook Field, Dayton, Ohio; Municipal Field, St. Joseph, Mo.; Air Mail Field, Cheyenne, Wyo.; and Salsburg, Utah.

By his original timing Lieutenant Maughn would reach San Francisco in 16 1/2 hours of daylight flying but the trip will now have to be made in 16 hours and 16 minutes, and he lost 14 minutes of daylight in the nine days since his first attempt.

Dinner Arranged
San Francisco, July 18.—A telegram was received from Lieutenant Russell L. Maughn by army officers at the Presidio tonight arranging for a dinner between Lieutenant Maughn and air service officers at Crissy Field tomorrow night. (By The Associated Press)

Two local fish companies sent out trucks to bring in the fish but it was found they were too small. "The majority were mullet, although a few small trout and blue fish were picked up. ## PARTY MERGER IN OKLAHOMA BEING TALKED

Minnesota Result Influences Reconstruction League to Act

(By The Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., July 18.—Influenced by the victory of Farmer-Laborites in Minnesota in electing Magnus Johnson to the United States senate, leaders of the Farmer-Labor Reconstruction League of Oklahoma today are discussing the advisability of pulling away from the Democratic Party in 1924 and organizing an independent Farmer-Labor Party, according to the Daily Oklahoman. The gist of the newspapers' article follows:

"Using the Democratic party last year, the Farmer-Laborites in Oklahoma swept the state. All has not been pleasant since that time however, old time Democrats refusing to bow to the leaders of the Farmer-Labor Movement. Governor J. C. Walton, standard bearer of the Farmer-Laborites but a Democrat has generally sided with the reconstruction league policies heavy bombardment from those who claim to be true Jeffersonian Democrats."

"Leaders of the Farmer-Labor Reconstruction League in discussing withdrawal from the Democratic primary in 1924, let it be known they also were influenced by the belief that Henry Ford, favored by many league members as a candidate for the presidency intends to seek the office on an independent or new party ticket."

"Notwithstanding the fact that none of the league officials cared to talk for publication today they admitted consideration of the new proposal and freely discussed the advisability of the move, expressing the opinion that the new party might be considered practicable in the campaign. Ford enthusiasts, feeling that the Detroit manufacturer plans to run independently of either of the major political parties declared that should Ford carry the state next year he would sweep the balance of his ticket with him. They also look upon Ford's candidacy as a solution to the question of campaign funds for launching a third party."

Opposition Seen

"Several Farmer-Labor Leaders, however, declared they would oppose a departure from the past plan of campaign movement can best gain expression thru the Democratic or dominant party of the state."

Governor J. C. Walton today issued a statement congratulating the "farmers and toilers of Minnesota" on their wonderful victory won thru the election of Magnus Johnson.

Governor Walton likened the Farmer-Labor movement today to the victorious assault on the tyrannical rule of the "American farmers and toilers who blazed the way from Bunker Hill to Yorktown."

These men met and conquered their enemies even overthrowing that great despot George H. Reekling for all the people political liberty."

Governor Walton said, "Since then we have been in the throes of even a greater despot, that might ruler is capital."

"As I have previously stated I believe in that personal thing called capital, but it should be the servant and not the master of mankind."

EUROPE'S WAR SHAPE BETTER THAN 1914

CLEVELAND, O., July 18.—Europe is now more nearly ready for world war than it was in 1914, Newton D. Baker, told an audience of women gathered here today to hear the former secretary of war and others outline the purposes of the league of nations non-Partisan association. It was the first time since the war in an attempt to secure signers to a petition that the United States enter a league of nations. ## MYSTERY SURROUNDS DEATH OF EMPLOYEE AND HER EMPLOYER

Attendant Circumstances are Baffling to the Police Department

(By The Associated Press)
KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 18.—Mrs. Earl Thompson employee in a local undertaking establishment, and her employer, W. M. McClure, were found dead in the undertaking parlors early tonight. Circumstances attending their deaths are baffling to police.

Mrs. Thompson's death is attributed to a fall of two stories down an elevator shaft.

Mr. McClure's body was found, a long post mortem knife buried in the chest shortly after he had instructed a negro porter to call doctors to aid Mrs. Thompson. The body was stretched upon an undertaker's slab.

Mr. McClure was 55 years and married. Mrs. Thompson was 38 years old.

Janitor's Statement

Fred Wobb, a negro janitor, told the police that when he returned to work at the undertaking parlor, early tonight he found Mr. McClure bending over Mrs. Thompson's body at the bottom of the elevator shaft.

"She has fallen down the shaft," the negro quoted McClure as saying.

McClure ordered him to call physicians, the negro said, after he and McClure had carried the woman's body from the shaft. Two physicians arrived and examined the body. Mr. McClure left when they arrived. When the doctors asked to see the proprietor of the establishment, a search was started which culminated with the discovery of McClure's body in the morgue.

Elevator Dood Open

The door into the elevator shaft was found to have been left open. Blood was found on the elevator.

Following an examination of the bodies and a cursory investigation, Dr. E. H. Moss, deputy coroner, asserted his theory to be that Mr. McClure, discovered with the body, had been unnerved by the possibility that he might be confronted by murder charges and had taken his own life in preference to facing an ordeal.

Mr. McClure, he said, probably was on the second story where coffins are stored, when Mrs. Thompson went to him to summon him to the office. Returning, the deputy coroner assumed, she fell down the shaft.

Investigation so far has not revealed that any other person besides Mr. McClure and Mrs. Thompson was in the building when Mrs. Thompson death occurred.

Mr. McClure is survived by his widow, an invalid, and two daughters.

ABILITY OF DEBTOR NATIONS TO PAY IS AN URGENT MATTER

National Credit Men Believe Question Should be Settled Now

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 18.—Not only Germany's ability to pay, but the capacities of all the other debtor countries to pay up should be fixed as promptly as possible by a commission of business and banking experts representing the nations of the world says a declaration of the administrative committee of the National association of Credit Men, made public here tonight.

"Some of us," the resolution declares, "may be disposed to regard these subjects with indifference and to feel they are of no vital concern to our national welfare. Such are not the views of this committee. It appears elemental that the debts of an individual differ from the debts of a nation only in degree and that both constitute a business problem that should be handled in a business way."

Concerns World Welfare

"The welfare of the world is deeply concerned in the subject. Force may bring results but it will also intensify unfriendly feeling. An adjustment should rest with a commission of business and financial experts representing the nations of the world. "The power of Germany to pay should be fixed by such a commission after an unprejudiced canvass of Germany's abilities. Not alone should the sum be fixed, but Germany should be compelled to pay by the concerted action of the nations represented in the commission."

WAY SEEN CONTINUE JURY INVESTIGATION

Without this Brundage said they could not prosecute the investigation further.

PASSIVITY TO CONTINUE AS RUHR'S POLICY

Determination is Pronounced Regardless of Allies' Pressure

(By The Associated Press)
ESSEN, July 18.—The Ruhr population intend to continue passive resistance, a high Berlin government official who has been in close touch with the situation here since the occupation began informed the Associated Press correspondent today. Whatever England may propose to Berlin in the forthcoming note concerning resistance, he added there was not the slightest indication that the Ruhr people were even thinking of ceasing their resistance under the present general outlook. The Ruhr people the official explained, are now more determined than ever not to give up.

"This is especially true of the miners, who I am sure would simply ignore Berlin if it should issue orders or recommendations to cease passive resistance."

The official asked that his name be "not divulged because he was afraid he might be deported."

BRITISH NOTE COMPLETE

London, July 18.—The draft of the British note to Germany was completed today and it is expected that one sitting of the cabinet council tomorrow will suffice to obtain approval of the ministries, in which case the note with covering letter will probably be dispatched to the allied governments Friday for their approval, and to Washington, not necessarily for comment, but as a matter of courtesy.

It is generally understood that neither document will see the light officially, until the note is in the hands of the German government, the date of which will depend upon how long the British government has to wait for replies from the allies.

It is in the power of France to employ delaying tactics, but it is supposed that after waiting a reasonable time Lord Curzon will despatch the note to Berlin, with or without French approval.

SENTENCED TO LIFE FOR SON'S MURDER

(By The Associated Press)
MASON, Mich., July 18.—Mrs. Emma Koppie, 59 year old Lansing woman, this afternoon was found guilty of the murder of her foster son, Harry Brill, by a jury in circuit court here. The boy died of poisoning May 13. It was charged that Mrs. Koppie conspired with James Shannon, a roomer at her home, to kill the boy in order to collect $1,300 insurance money on the lad's life. The jury which deliberated 50 minutes before reaching a verdict was composed of 10 men and two women.

Mrs. Koppie was sentenced to life imprisonment at hard labor in the Detroit house of correction. She continued to declare her innocence.

CLAIMS PUBLIC IS MULCTED OF ITS DUE

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, July 18.—Asserting that insurance companies have confiscated millions of dollars by lapsed payments by policy holders, Representative Thomas, Democrat of Oklahoma, announced today he would introduce a bill in the next congress seeking to guarantee to the public "the full benefits under all insurance policy contracts."

The money held by the companies, Mr. Thomas said, consists of funds which rightfully belong to the estate of unfortunate persons who permitted their policies to lapse after making a sufficient number of annual premium payments to give their estates a paid-up or extended insurance value.

He fully advise policy holders of the value of their policies, Mr. Thomas said, is responsible for the condition.

Now that the government is going in so hard for the ocean passenger business, we may soon be flooded with official propaganda to "see Europe first."

In another column is an interesting story of a family once resident in Jacksonville. There are nine sons in this unusual family and once each month the sons, who have organized a club, meet to talk over affairs of mutual interest and to seek ways of being mutually helpful. It is easy to understand how much more these brothers will accomplish than will brothers in other families who instead of looking out for each others' welfare are constantly seeking to gain something for their own advantage.

If this co-operative family idea of the Walkers could be extended in a large way to other groups and circles the millennial days would arrive.

The proposal to have uniform traffic laws in cities of this state would meet with the approval of tourists who often violate laws unwittingly. With different rules in vogue in different cities, it is not surprising that there are violations by tourists. But the greatest benefit to the cities in uniform laws would be that such laws would represent the sum total of experience.

Every city has been struggling with these same problems—how to control the speed of cars and how to provide parking space for them and the problems have not yet been satisfactorily solved.

The suggestion that congress be called in extra session to pass legislation designed for the benefit of the farmer will not meet with support in localities where economic problems are studied in a basic way. To some men the idea of the government placing a minimum price on wheat and other farm products sounds like the easy way to solve the question. It is admitted that certain farm products are below the cost of production, but it must also be admitted that prosperity cannot be legislated to the farmer. Various causes enter into the present price situation and they would not be done away with or improved merely by the passing of a law purporting to fix a price which would mean a profit above production cost.

MOTHERS' PENSIONS.

All but six of our states now have some sort of mothers' pension laws. The U. S. Department of Labor recently investigated the working of those laws in a number of representative communities. It found that from the large city to the rural community, the system is mending broken homes, saving mothers from the loss of their children and assuring the children a better chance in life. Although the laws vary somewhat, they are essentially similar. In spite of mistakes in administration and blunders in the making of the laws in the first place, a great deal of good is being accomplished by the mothers' pension. Careful investigation can prevent abuse of the system. Its careful administration means hope and health and opportunity to thousands of children.

A SHACKLED PRESS.

A Russian-born representative of the New York World, Samuel Spewack, presents an almost incredible picture of the Russian press.

He has been reading the leading Soviet newspapers for a year. He has spent much time in their offices. He knows their editors and reporters and speaks their languages. He should know, therefore, what he is talking about.

Now, safely outside of Russia, Mr. Spewack reports that every newspaper in that country is the organ of the Soviet government and every newspaper editor is bound by the discipline of the Communist party. There is no pretense of presenting news. The newspapers are published solely to create public opinion which will favor what the government favors.

"Accordingly every editorial is a government pronouncement, every story a government interpretation. News is distorted, faked and colored as no subservient press anywhere else would attempt. No opposition press exists."

As a result, the people have no means of judging events, domestic or foreign, and know nothing about what is going on outside of Russia. That is the way the Bolshevik leaders retain their power. It may take a long time for such a drugged population to wake up. But when they do what will happen to the present regime?

IS HEALTH BUNK?

At a time when the question of the Morgan County Health Program is hanging in the financial balance, the following from the Chicago Journal of Commerce is especially timely:

When Henry Ford said "history is bunk" the public was amazed. History is experience, and experience is the greatest and most infallible of teachers. Mr. Ford himself had profited enormously by his own experience as a manufacturer, by the history of his own transactions and policies. To call history bunk was a ridiculous absurdity.

But is Mr. Ford any farther out of line with reason in his judgment of history than the overwhelming majority of his countrymen are in their attitude toward health information? "This health stuff is bunk" is a common opinion, which goes along with the idea that a man is foolish to trail a doctor every time he feels out of sorts. But a man's health is his most valuable asset. Why should he not watch it and conserve it as carefully as he does his financial resources?

Just now the National Health Council is seeking to influence the public to undergo an annual health examination, knowing that such examinations prolong the lives of those who submit to them. It is a matter of business to the great life insurance companies, because the longer their policy holders live the greater profits they make. Money talks and talks loud for the fact that the man who is overhauled once a year lasts longer than one who dodges repairs. A man is a piece of machinery—the most intricate and delicate on earth. The manufacturer wants his machines in sweet running order, including his automobile. Why not be inspected himself once a year? It will prolong his life without a doubt.

Six thousand policy holders in the metropolitan life, examined in 1914 and 1915, and "repaired" as a result, have shown a mortality 28 per cent less than similar groups of equal numbers not examined. That is both experience and history and is not bunk. Intelligence commands its campaign for health examinations.

WITH THE SICK

CEREALS FOR CALORIES

(By Elizabeth Hallman Bohn)
(Consultant in Home)
(Economies)

Never has there been a time when people generally have shown greater interest in the right kinds of food than the present.
Such posters as "Raisin Week" and "Cereals for Calories" greet the eye of the consumer in food experts are daily giving us
new and valuable information about the things we eat.

It is probably safe to say, even with this growing interest in the food because it is palatable rather than because of any definite idea as to its nutritive value. If we were willing to accept scientific findings of nutrition experts, we would save both our digestion and our dollars.

History shows that cereals have always played an important part in the diet of all nations.
With the advance of civilization Nature's golden grains have been manufactured into highly concentrated products which furnish the materials to build body tissue and to supply energy for work or play. Cereals in the form of breakfast foods should have a place in the family menu
at least once a day.

Breakfast cereals are available on the market in uncooked and "ready to eat" varieties. Owing to the necessary trouble and time required to prepare uncooked cereals, the "ready-to-eat" types are finding a wider use in the home. Indeed, the latter kinds are not only popular on the breakfast table, but they can be combined with other foods to make all sorts of tempting dishes for the other meals of the day.
Some one suggested that Grape-Nuts, unique as a cereal, can be used from soup to nuts. It is interesting to know that cooking

Pimples

THERE are thousands of women who wonder why their complexions do not improve in spite of all the face treatments
they use. They should not continue to wonder. Eruptions come from blood impurities and a lack of rich blood cells. S. S. S. is acknowledged to be one of the most powerful, rapid and effective blood cleansers known. S. S. S. builds new blood cells. This is why S. S. S. routs out of your system the impurities which cause
boils, pimples, blackheads, acne, blotches, eczema, tetters, rash.
S. S. S. is a remarkable flesh-builder. That's why underweight people can quickly build up their lost flesh, get back their normal weight, pink, plump cheeks, bright eyes, and "pep."

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

experts have found this wholesome cereal can be substituted to advantage for bread in almost any of those dishes in which bread was always supposed to be necessary.

Grape-Nuts, which contains the rich food value of malted barley and wheat, is so thoroughly baked that practically all of the nutriment is easily digested and the flavor of the grains is developed.

Vitamin-B and mineral elements necessary for the health of every member of the family, and lacking in so many "over-refined" foods, are supplied in this full-flavored and strength-giving cereal. The complete baking it receives in its preparation, and its delicious flavor make it an excellent ingredient to incorporate in recipes for entrees, dressings for fowl and fish, salads and desserts.

Try these carefully tested recipes:

Grape-Nuts Meat Loaf

1 cup Grape-Nuts.

1 pound veal, mutton or beef.

1-8 pound salt pork.

1 teaspoon salt.

1-8 teaspoon pepper.

2 tablespoons milk.

1 egg.

1-2 minced onion.

1-2 tablespoons lemon-juice.

2 tablespoons tomato catsup.

1-2 tablespoon chopped parsley.

Put the meat through a food chopper, add seasoning. Brown minced onion in a little fat before adding Grape-Nuts, milk and slightly beaten eggs. Pack in a baking dish, shaping like a loaf of baked bread and smooth evenly on top. Bake for forty-five minutes, basting frequently with one-half cup of hot water, a tablespoon at a time. Just before taking from oven, brush with some of the beaten white of egg and a little milk. Brown for one minute. Makes four portions.

Grape-Nuts Salad

1 cup Grape-Nuts.

1 sliced orange.

1-2 cup cubed pineapple.

2 cubed bananas.

2 teaspoons lemon-juice.

Cream Salad Dressing.

Cut up the fruit, add lemon-juice, mix with Grape-Nuts, and serve on bed of lettuce with Cream Salad Dressing. Makes four to six portions.

Grape-Nuts Cookies

1 cup Grape-Nuts.

1-2 cup shortening.

1-4 cups light brown sugar.

1-2 cup milk.

2 well-beaten eggs.

2-4 cups flour.

2 teaspoons baking powder.

1 teaspoon cinnamon.

1-2 teaspoon cloves.

1-4 teaspoon salt.

1 cup chopped seeded raisins.

Cream, shortening and sugar.
Add milk and well beaten eggs.
Add well-sifted dry ingredients and raisins that have been dusted with part of the flour, and then the Grape-Nuts. Beat thoroughly and drop from a spoon on baking sheet one and one-half inches apart. Bake in a moderate oven for fifteen minutes.

LEARNING SECRET OF SEA

Scientists Have Discovered Many Things Concerning the Denizens of Ocean's Depths.

Humans may have their matrimonial tangles, but they are nothing to the matrimonial problems of the native oyster. In "Animals of the Sea," F. Martin Dunham, F. Z.
S. teaches us that different individuals changes its sex at different periods, but the authorities do not agree as to the sex with which the oyster starts its life. Young oysters enjoy 48 hours' freedom as moving creatures; then they settle down for life. Among the oyster's enemies is the starfish. An invasion of "five-fingers" will sometimes destroy a whole bed of oysters in a single night. Some most interesting points gleaned from this book include: The female lobster has been known to produce 100,000 eggs at a time. Limpets go on traveling expeditions at night, but by a wonderful homing instinct, return to exactly the same spot on their "home" rock. Whelks have from 220 to 250 teeth each, the whole possessing a set of 3,500, but the dental outfit of the "umbrella shell" is 750,000 teeth. The sea urchin has four different kinds of spines,
each with a specialized function—
weapons, poison bearers, "chewers" and cleaners. A giant clam will weigh 500 pounds. A 34-pound ling was found to possess 28,361,000
eggs.—Boston Transcript.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davidson and family of Louisville, Kentucky arrived in their car Tuesday afternoon for a visit with

ALL ANIMALS DESIRE LOVE

Mankind Not the Only Creature
That is Able to Appreciate
Feeling of Affection.

A certain hymn tells us that "the world is dying for a little bit of love." But have you ever thought that even as people desire love, so do animals? All animals—especially dogs—are longing for love
every day of their lives.

You can walk down the street and meet a lonesome, ragged, disowned dog, which, if you will snap your finger at him and speak kindly to him, will prick up his ears and wag his tail and follow you.
Some dogs endure so many kicks and cuffs and so much starvation that they eagerly grasp at any insignificant kindness.

Animals love to be loved almost as well as a person does. Let us remember this and see that all animals with whom we come in contact get some sort of affection.

A college president once stated that one of the tests of an educated person was to be able to say that a stray dog would follow him home.

Mother Must Be Versatile.

Person who read a slip fastened to the bulletin board of the Manhattan headquarters of the Girl Scout organization were rather startled until they realized that the average woman, mother of three or four children, really fills all the positions specified below.

The paper, taken from a national camp bulletin, states "at least a part knowledge of the following 54 occupations is necessary to make a home—hostess, executive, purchasing agent, superintendent, treasurer,
accountant, bookkeeper, cashier,
file clerk, correspondent, inspector,
employment manager, banker, dietician, confectioner, cook, waiter, janitor, bus boy, bell boy, dishwasher, carrier, florist, nurse, gardener, poultry raiser, educator, entertainer, clothing designer, milliner, seamstress, embroiderer, dyer, cleaner, renovator, librarian,
physician, teacher, laundry worker,
hair dresser, manicurist, industrial arts worker, carpenter, electrician, mechanic, inventor, efficiency engineer, painter, plumber, upholsterer and interior decorator."

Melville on His Piazza.

In summer, too, Canute-like, sitting here, one is often reminded of the sea. For not only do long groundswells roll the slanting grain, and little wavelets of the grass ripple over upon the low piazza, and their beach, and the blown down of dandelions is wafted like the spray, and the purple of mountains is seen the purple of the billows, and a still August noon broods over the deep meadows, as a calm upon them; but the vastness and the lonesomeness are so oceanic, and the silence and the sameness, too, that the first peep of a strange house, rising beyond the trees, is for all the world like spying, on the Barbary coast, an unknown sail.—Hermann Melville.

Maps Long Used in Peru.

Mapmaking goes back to the earliest known time. It was a branch of the early picture writing practiced by savages. In Tahiti, for instance, the natives were able to make fairly good maps for the guidance of explorers. Maps with ruled lines were in use in Peru
before the Conquest.

The oldest known map is that of the Ethiopian gold mines, dating from the time of Sesostris I, the father of Rameses II, long before the time of Aristagoras and his bronze tablet, on which were inscribed the circuits of the earth and all the seas
and rivers then known.

Great Speed Under Difficulties.

An extract from the New York Evening Post of October 2, 1907, may afford some amusement to travelers by water in these days:

Mr. Fulton's newly-invented steambot, which is fitted up in a new style for passengers, and is intended to run from New York to Albany as a packet, left here this noon with 50 passengers against a strong headwind. Notwithstanding this, it was judged that she moved through the water at the rate of six miles an hour!

Derelict Taxpayers.

According to official figures, the number of English subjects sent to jail for refusing to pay their income taxes numbered 1,162 two years ago. The number has since been reduced.

Mrs. Fred Coultas and daughter, Miss Helen, motored to town
from their home near Lynville yesterday.

TO ASK RECOGNITION OF RUSSIAN REPUBLIC

NEW YORK, July 18.—United States Senator Smith W. Brookhart of Iowa, told the New York American today he planned to call on Secretary of State Hughes next Thursday and report to him the results of his personal investigation of conditions in Russia from which he returned recently.

If he asks my opinion about the matter," Senator Brookhart added, "I shall unhesitatingly recommend that the United States arrange for a speedy recognition of the Russian Republic.

The world eventually will be forced to recognize the soviet government as a power to be reckoned with, he declared and he predicted that it would only be a question of time when the leading nations of the world would seek Russia's friendship.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

Cass Wants Ball Game. R. W. Dickinson of Cass county wants to know the date of our annual farm bureau picnic. He says the Cass County Farm Bureau has a baseball team composed of farm bureau members or their sons and wants games with surrounding counties.

Feeding Wheat. Secretary of Agriculture Wallace has advised farmers to feed wheat. As many farmers will quite likely follow his advice in view of the present low price it seems well to give a few facts about feeding wheat reported by various experiment stations.

Dairy Cattle.—In Maine, ground wheat was found to have about the same value as corn meal for feeding dairy cattle. In Denmark they consider it equal to mixed barley and oats. Wheat should always be ground or rolled for cattle.

Horses.—As a horse feed, wheat should be fed with moderation preferably mixed with bran or chaffy forage to avoid digestive troubles and skin eruptions.

Hog Feed.—As a hog feed, ground wheat has compared favorably with ground corn when fed with tankage and superior when fed alone.

Sheep.—A good quality of wheat has proved better than barley for fattening sheep and almost equal to corn.

Cattle.—Do not eat wheat as readily as corn and consequently do not make as good gains as on corn.

Poultry.—Wheat is the best single grain to feed poultry. In view of the preceding facts it would seem to be good business for farmers to feed wheat instead of selling it all at the present low price.

Cincinnati, O., July 18.—Fire which broke out in the barns of the Cincinnati Traction company just before midnight spread to Chester Park, a pleasure resort, where the Cincinnati Pure Food Exposition is being held this week. Buildings housing the exhibits from all sections of the country were threatened.

FRENCH BANKING CUSTOMS

Much Formality Attends the Opening of an Account and the Making Use of It.

In the great towns of France, in Paris itself, where the banks and other institutions close at high noon and there are four tides daily on the subways and busses, there is the same hard and leisureed work. If you want a banking account, you apply in due time for a check book, and are asked to call for it a few days later. No, it will not take you so much time; it is not the custom, either, to send it by post; some time, when you are enjoying a pleasant promenade along the boulevards, you will think of your check book and then you will call for it and finally, with due formality, it will be placed in your hands. The getting of money by its means is another matter. Here come in interesting formulas concerning your genealogy, your status, your rank number and anything else that adds to the interest of the transaction. You do not go to the bank, even merely to draw out or pay in money. You go as part of a philosophy, neither after twelve, nor before two. It is almost a rite as you sit on a backless bench and wait until your number is called. Then you go away feeling that money is a privilege, a responsibility, almost as though you had been to church.—Muriel Harris in the North American Review.

HELD FAME ABOVE MONEY

Man Who Discovered Rocky Mountain Pass Too Proud of the Fact to Accept Check.

Mount Tupper in the Canadian Rockies was once named Mount Carroll after a hard-bitten Rocky mountain engineer who was transit man to Major Rogers in July, 1882. The P. R. R. were building through the kicking horse pass and taking a chance on finding a pass through the Selkirk range. Rogers and Carroll were searching for it. Their supplies were down to a dog, five plugs of chewing tobacco, four beans and a slab of sow-belly. Rogers pointing to the shoulder of a distant peak, now called Mount Carroll, said they would probably find a pass there and it would only take two or three days. "We have eaten our last bannock," said Carroll. "You may be willing to die for glory. What about me?" "I'll name it after you," said Rogers. They found the pass and came through it more dead than alive. For many years the mountain was known as Rogers promised. Rogers himself got a check for $5,000 from the C. P. R. He framed and hung it up. "I did not do it for money," he said. "I would not take $100,000 for it."

Tailor Bird's Ingenuity

The tailor bird, an East Indian warbler, is peculiar mainly in his nest-making. The actual structure of his ingenious cradle has never been scientifically observed. It is said, although tailor birds are common, remarks the Detroit News. He either sews a dead leaf to a living one or joins two neighboring leaves together so as to form a kind of hanging pouch, which remains attached to the branch by the leaf stalk of one or both leaves. The threads which the tailor bird uses consist generally of twisted vegetable fibers or of actual cotton threads, the bill serving for needle in puncturing holes in the leaves and in drawing the threads through. Occasionally, if a large enough leaf be found the nest may be formed by joining together the free edges of the leaf.

The lower part of the pouch contains the nest, which is a cup of soft materials, and is entered from above.

Pineapple Peeling Made Easy

The easiest way to peel a pineapple is to fill a kettle or a pail a little larger than the pineapple with boiling water. Into this plunge the fruit, completely covering it with the water. Allow it to remain for three to five minutes. Remove from water and cut into slices about one-half inch thick. Then peel and cut out eyes. It will peel almost as easily as a potato. While peeling the first one immerse another in the water, which must be kept at the boiling point. This does not injure the flavor nor soften the inside.

His Message

Two prosperous looking men met in a San Francisco hotel. Said one: "My wife's gone to Del Monte to stay a week. Where's yours?" "Oh, mine hopped off on the T. K. K. boat for the Islands this morning," returned the other. "By the way, that reminds me. I've got to send her a radio so that she'll have something to show her folks."

"What are you going to say?" "Miss you dreadfully," and a lot of bunk like that?"

"Huh! at $2 a word! Not me! I make 'em short and snappy. I just say 'Boy vivant' and let it go at that."—Boston Transcript.

Up-to-Date Patrons

The spinster music teacher had given the young librarian trouble for months, hunting references, changing books and answering special questions, until the young librarian was out of humor. Then came the day when the music teacher made a new complaint. "Your books are not well chosen," she said. "You have few that were written by the old masters."

"Oh," the young librarian was airy, "that's because we have so few of you patrons who can remember the old masters."

A POT OF BRASS

"America is a good place to live, if you don't believe it, try living in Russia for a while," says Seena Petlov, who is on her way back to Chicago after two years of hardship in Russia. "Father and Mother weren't satisfied here, they wanted to go back to Russia. I don't know why, except that all the laboring people seemed to think they did not have enough liberty. I cried when they said they were going back, and threatened to run away. But they thought the new government in Russia was wonderful; that the working people would have everything—that they would be like kings. It really isn't anything like that."

The Petlovs lived in Chicago. The father worked in a furniture factory. He got a Saturday pay check that was real money and bought nourishing food and good clothes. Seena worked and went to night school. She was "learning something." They were "getting along."

But tales of the new Russia came to her father and mother. They listened and believed, and in 1921 their hoarded savings financed a pitiful trek to the promised land.

The tale of the Petlovs is trite enough—another rainbow of illusion trailed through the dust of reality. When they got to the Russian border their money and valuables were taken. Their American clothes were old for food. They traveled in teeming freight cars, ate dirty black bread, gleaned famine-stricken fields. There was nothing but hunger, sickness and disillusion.

The American Relief Administration sent Seena back to America. "he is going to live with her uncle in Chicago, work, go to night school and try to save enough money to bring her father and mother back to America. "They are cured of Russia," she says. "They see America just now as I see it, a place where one can work and be sure of getting paid for it, where one can get along and have things, at least enough to eat and enough to wear. I like American food and American freedom. It's nice to be back. I'm going to be an American always."

There is always the quest for Aradia. It is the natural struggle of humanity to better itself. Misguided, however, it leads nowhere, and too many visionaries, like the Petlovs, find themselves clutching a pot of brass.—Chicago Journal of Commerce.

MURPHY THE CHESS KING

Capt. F. C. Taylor has writ-

Paul Murphy, the "king of chess players." Capt. Taylor said reof chess was in 1859, when the newspapers carried the story of the achievements of the greatest players.

Throughout the years Capt. Tayand so he compiled this story of the chess prodigy, Paul C. Murphy, who was in early life a resident of New Orleans. It was while in New Orleans that Capt.

Taylor learned the facts of the history narrated here.

Paul Charles Murphy was born in the city of New Orleans on June 22, 1837. His paternal grandfather was a native of Spain, and, emigrating to America, resided for some years at Charleston, South Carolina, in which city Paul Murphy's father, Alonso Murphy was born in the latter part of 1798. The family not long afterward removed to New Orleans, where Alonso Mur-education, studied law under that great juris consult, Edward Livingston practiced his profession with great success and for a number of years previous to his death was an honored justice of the Supreme Court of Louisiana.

Judge Murphy's wife was a Miss Le Carpentier, one of the oldest French Creole families of the state. Paul was the second son of four children born to his parents. He received a good academical education in the city of his birth, and when about 13 years old was enrolled as a student of St. Joseph's college, conducted by the Jesuit Fathers, at Spring Hill, near Mobile, Ala.
Here, after four years attendance,
he graduated with the highest honors ever awarded in the institution in October, 1854, but remained a year longer, occupying himself almost exclusively with the study of mathematics and philosophy. He was a very hard student and his intense application combined, as it was,
with phenomenal power of mind,
and especially of memory, gave him such success in his studies that his classmates actually came to consider as not surprising any mental feat, however great or difficult, when accomplished by him.

In 1855 he became a student in the law department of the University of Louisiana, and again, in the prosecution of his legal studies showed the same intensity of application and notable success as in his college life. He graduated in April, 1857, when but 20 years of age, and was pronounced by an eminent member of the faculty the most deeply read and most thoroughly prepared student that had ever graduated from the law school of the university.

Chess had always been a conspicuous feature in the amusements of the Murphy family.
Paul's maternal grandfather, old Mr. Le Carpentier, was devoted to the game; Judge Alonso Murphy was a player of fair strength,
while his brother, Ernest Murphy,
was not only almost a first-rate
of his day, but was also a particularly strong and deep analyst.
Among a number of frequent visitors who played chess was, also, Eugene Rousseau, whose hard fought match, contested in New Orleans in 1845 with Stanley, the English player, is one of the landmarks in the early history of American chess.

Paul Learns Chess

Paul Murphy's father taught him the moves of the game in the latter part of 1847, when he was a little more than 10 years old, and though his indulgence was then, as indicated all thru his boy-hood, limited to certain days of the week, he proved so apt a pupil under the instructions of his father and uncle, that almost from his first game he was able to fight on even terms against either. His strength of play increased with incredible rapidity, and within two years he had de-

LADY WONDER BREAKS HIP ON LOCAL TRACK

Star Pacer Put Out of Running in Big Race Meet by Accident in Workout Yesterday — Is Placed in Sling for Long Period.

The first serious accident, and it is hoped the last, of the big race meet on the local track, occurred yesterday afternoon, when "Lady Wonder," the star pacer mare owned and driven by J. B. Early of Springfield, fractured her hip in the workout. She was taken to the veterinary hospital of Dr. R. C. Henley and placed in a sling, where she must remain for six or eight weeks.

The mare was entered in the 2:14 pace to be staged tomorrow, and stood a good chance to win one of the big purses. Her record in previous races was 2:09.1. She paced the last half in 1:01 and the quarter in 23 seconds. With Lady Wonder out of the race the track loses one of its fastest attractions.

Everything possible is to be done to save the mare, and she is to be given the best of care and attention. It is believed she will some day be able to run again, provided no unforeseen accidents occur.

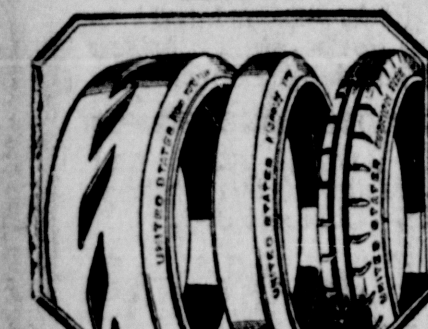

Lady Wonder was entered in two of the big stake races at the coming state fair, one for a purse of $3,000 and another for a purse of $1,500.

Evelyn Patch and Major Gentry, two of Morgan county's fastest race horses, may be sold to a Missouri race horse man by the owner, George Woods of Franklin. The deal will probably be consummated during the big race meet, which opens this afternoon. Mr. Woods has been offered $1,500 for the racers.

K. OF C. WALKED ON BY MERCHANTS TEAM

In the Twilight League game last night the Knights of Columbus were walked on by the Merchants, the score being 7 to 0. No particular brilliance was shown by either side but R. Zell favored the Merchants with a homer in the fourth inning. Shibe, Baptist, and Zell were credited with two runs each. Batteries — Merchants, Zell and Harrison; Knights, Devlin and McNamara.

Set Them Back Two by Taking Game 6 to 4—Tied Until Seventh

NEW YORK, July 18.—St. Louis reduced New York's lead in the National League to two games here today defeating the world's champions, 6 to 4. It was only St. Louis' second victory of the season against New York. St. Louis broke the tie in the seventh inning after two were out, driving in three runs on singles by Sherdel and Hornsby, Bottomley's triple and Stock's double. RICKARD'S EFFORTS STILL UNAVAILING

NEW YORK, July 18.—Tex Rickard's effort to sign, seal and deliver the proposed Jack Dempsey-Firpo match for the world's heavyweight championship either in the United States or the Argentine, apparently were no nearer completion today after a series of conferences among the promoter, Firpo, the latter's trainer, Jimmy DeForest, and Jack Kearns, manager of the champion.

Rickard declined to reveal the exact status of affairs, beyond saying that "a number of things were holding up negotiations" but Kearns added that he expected definite developments within the next 48 hours. He may confer with Rickard again tomorrow on the match, he said.

DICKERMAN TAKES EIGHTH DEFEAT

BROOKLYN, July 18.—Cincinnati knocked Dickerman out of the box for his eighth straight defeat today, the Reds winning the first game of the series with Brooklyn 8 to 4. Duncan hit a homer with one on in the fourth. Zack Wheat, Brooklyn captain, left for his home in Polo, Mo., today. A bone in his left ankle is fractured an X-ray revealed. He will join the team at St. Louis on July 30.

DURBIN.

The plans are being completed for the annual picnic to be held in the Randall Grove August 9th.

We failed to record in our last week's items two very happy children's parties.

Mrs. Milford Rees entertained a number of little folks in honor of her daughter Margaret's 5th birthday anniversary and Mrs. Frank Wilson gave the Little Light Bearers a party to which the mothers were also invited.

Misses Sarah and Helen Harrison of Prentice are visiting their cousin Dorthea Davies.

Little Ella McKinney has ended a visit with her aunt Mrs. Roy Smith and returned to her home at Lynville.

Miss Helen Jordan who was formerly a missionary to China, gave a splendid address concerning affairs in that country, Sunday A. M. at Durbin.

The Ladies Aid met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Fred Travers and daughter, Viola with a good attendance.

The excellent program was prepared by the children under the leadership of Elizabeth Scott.

Market Report

MARKET DISPLAYED MUCH BETTER TONE

FINANCIAL.
Total stock sales 418,600 shares.
Twenty industrials averaged 90.01; net gain .51.
High 1923—105.38; low 87.64.
Twenty railroads averaged 79.25; net loss .08.
High 1923—90.63; low 76.85.

NEW YORK, July 18.—The stock market displayed a distinctly better tone in more active dealings today.

There were numerous favorable developments, notably a sharp advance in wheat prices, firmness of sugar, cotton and copper, and advances in the price of crude rubber and more favorable news from abroad. The buying, however, was limited largely to industrials and specialties.

After a relatively active and strong opening price receded slightly on dullness by little or no selling pressure was encountered at any hour of the day. Some of the popular leaders moved up in the early transactions on short covering operations, but generally net changes in those shares were negligible.

A wide assortment of industrials and specialties including the motor accessories, shippings, textile and merchandising, tobacco, chemical, coppers, independent steels, foods and some miscellaneous stocks recorded gains of 1 to 3 points.

SUDDEN UPTURNS IN PRICE OF WHEAT

CHICAGO, July 18. — Sudden upturns in the price of wheat took place today, largely as a result of nervousness on the part of previous sellers. The nervousness was due more or less to concerted efforts which are being made to induce investors to "buy 1,000 bushels of wheat" and to have housewives "buy a barrel of flour." After scoring in some cases an advance of 2 1/2c a bushel heat closed unsettled at a range varying from 1 1/2c to 2 1/2c net gain, with September 98 1/2 to 98 3/4 and December $1.01 1/2 to $1.01 3/4.

Corn finished 1 to 3c up and oats at 1/2 to 3/4 advance. In provisions, the outcome was 7c to 15c decline.

Agitation to broaden the general demand for wheat had a bullish effect on the market from the outset and was supplemented by higher quotations at Liverpool and by smallness of country acceptance of bids from there.

There was much talk current also that sentiment of late had been too unanimously bearish and that the selling side of the market had become over extended. Disquieting news about chances of damage by blackrust both sides of the Canadian boundary was a further stimulus to buyers.

Assessing that the seaboard 750,000 to 1,000,000 bushels of wheat had been purchased for shipment to Europe attracted notice in the last part of the day and helped to prevent any important downward reaction in values, despite considerable profit-taking by holders.

Moreover exporters were said to be finding it difficult to obtain new offers of wheat south-west.

Corn and oats moved up with wheat. July delivery of corn equalled the season's high price record. Crop reports as to corn were favorable, however, and the market lost much of the advance.

Chicago Cash Wheat

CHICAGO, July 18. — Cash wheat today was 1 1/2c higher with premiums on red and hard wheat 3c lower. Other grades were nominally unchanged. Domestic sales here were 10,000 bushels.

Corn was 3c higher. Trading bases were 1 1/2c lower. Shipping sales here were 195,000 bushels.

Oats were 3c better. Trading bases were 1/2 to 3/4 higher on a good demand under light offerings. Shipping sales here aggregated 150,000 bushels.

Cars inspected wheat 79; corn 145; oats 63.

NEW LIBRARIAN WILL WORK WITH CHILDREN

Miss Elizabeth Donlon of New York Takes Charge of Children's Department at Local Public Library—Is Highly Qualified for Position.

Miss Elizabeth Donlon of Utica, N. Y., has been engaged as children's librarian on the staff at the Jacksonville public library, and assumed her duties here the first of the week. Miss Donlon was for three years employed in the public library at Utica, and has recently completed a special course in library work at Simmons college in Boston, Mass. She was for a time engaged in practice library work in New York City.

It has been sometime since the local library has had a full time children's librarian. It is planned to build up this department of the work under Miss Donlon's supervision. Special work is to be done among the school children and emphasis will be laid on the story telling at the library. Miss Donlon had a special course in this branch of the work while at Simmons college. Miss Donlon comes here highly qualified for the position, and the library board considers itself fortunate in securing her services.

WALKER BROTHERS HAVE FAMILY CLUB

Cleveland Paper Tells of Unusual Record of Nine Sons of Former Residents of This City—Spirit of Work Together Offers Fine Example to Others

Under the caption, "The Most remarkable family in the World, the Cleveland (O.) Press in a late issue tells a very interesting story about nine young men, sons of Mr. and Mrs. George Walker, who years ago were residents of Jacksonville.

Mr. Walker was, while living here a shoemaker in the employ of Buhre and Catherwood. He was a friend and fellow-worker of Matthew Minter and Mr. Minter recently received a copy of the Cleveland paper telling of the remarkable co-operative spirit which the nine sons evidenced.

Mr. Minter remembers that Mr. and Mrs. Walker were among the guests at his wedding and that he and Mrs. Minter were guests when Mr. and Mrs. Walker were married.

The Cleveland Press article was written by John Wharton, evidently a member of the staff of the paper. Above the reading matter are the pictures of the nine sons arranged in circular form and in addition to the first names of the young men these words are used in the picture as indicative of their spirit: "Friendship, good will, fellowship, charity, brotherly love, fidelity, co-operation and loyalty."

Here is the story of this interesting family as written by Mr. Wharton:

"Here, in my opinion, is the most remarkable family in the world. I shall stand on that statement until you have shown me a family that has a greater claim to distinction.

Brothers Meet Monthly

"In this group are the nine Walker brothers, closely bound together in an organization that they call the Walker club. The club meets on the first Sunday of each month at the home of one of its members. The meetings are called to order by Raymond Walker, the man in the center of the picture. He is the club's president.

"Minutes of the preceding meeting are ready by Henry Walker, secretary. Then the business of the day is transacted. The business consists chiefly of determining whether there is anything that one or more of the brothers can do to make the lives of the other brothers more happy. If there is, then these men, bound by blood ties, set themselves to that task. There are no jealousies, no petty bickerings.

"There is good will and charity and co-operation and brotherly love. These are the things that raise enlightened men above the savage. If there is no business to transact at their meetings—if everyone reports that his affairs are in good shape—then the brothers settle down to a game of cards or to informal talks on every subject from the newest baby's newest tooth to the question of when is the best time to get in the winter coat.

"Each Christmas they gather at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Walker. There they have a huge Christmas tree, about which their children gather. It is the big day of the year for their 71 year old mother and their 79 year old father who celebrated their golden wedding anniversary two years ago.

On August 5, they will gather at Crystal Lake for their club meeting. Their families will attend that open air affair. That means that about 30 will be present.

An Idea for Nations
Edward Bok of Philadelphia has offered $100,000 to the person who invents the most practical method of keeping the nations of the world at peace. I am not competing for that prize. It will be won by a wiser man than I. But I submit the earth, thru representatives, could gather about a round table, in the same spirit that prevails at the Walker club, wars would be at an end.

"The trouble with most of us as individuals and most of us as nations is that we have become too selfish. More and more we are failing to see the viewpoints of others. I call the Walkers the most remarkable family in the world because they so clearly show us the error of our way.

"The family points us to higher ideals that are founded upon a rock so stable that it remains undisturbed by the little squalls that beset us on life's turbulent sea. It is the rock of Brotherly Love. For seven years the Walker club has existed. May it live for seven times seven years and longer, as an inspiration to us all."

NOTES AND PLEDGES BROUGHT TO CITY

E. E. Crabtree Named Custodian of Bi-Conference Documents—Must Classify Huge Number of Papers.

Dr. J. R. Barker returned last night from Peoria, where he has been in attendance at a meeting of the executive committee of the Bi-conference movement. The committee, it will be remembered represented the six institutions and organizations interested in the Bi-conference drive for $1,250,000. At the conference of this committee E. E. Crabtree, who is treasurer of the Illinois Woman's college, was elected custodian of all pledges and papers of the Bi-conference movement.

It will be Mr. Crabtree's duty to analyze and classify these pledges numbering 14,000 and later the committee will allot the moneys or pledges belonging to the different institutions and organizations.

Some of the pledges were designated for special purposes and others will go into the one general fund. There are estate notes, legacies and pledges in differing forms, so that the custodian has a large task.

As a result of Mr. Crabtree's appointment the Farrell State bank will become for the present at least the depository for the documents. Mr. Crabtree's appointment came as both an honor to him and the Woman's College.

SANATORIUM LAW HAS BEEN AMENDED

General Assembly took Action to Make Possible County Cooperation in Maintaining Hospitals.

The recent general assembly amended the county tuberculosis sanatorium law in such a way that two or more adjacent counties may be united to create a sanatorium district for the joint operation of a district institution for tuberculosis. The action is of special interest here as it offers a possibility for securing revenue outside of Morgan county for the maintenance of Oak Lawn sanatorium.

One of the local people who has been continually interested in the fight against tuberculosis and in the establishment of the local sanatorium said yesterday that it was always the belief of persons who fostered the sanatorium movement here that several counties should be able to support the enterprise. They have realized that most counties are too small to finance the operation of such an institution from the general tax funds, without the creating of an unfortunate tax burden.

Another amendment adopted by the assembly which will serve to bring relief to tubercular persons in many counties is that which provides that county sanatorium boards in counties where no sanatorium facilities are offered may use funds raised by the sanatorium tax for the care of tubercular persons in public or private sanatoria in Illinois. This provision may also aid in the solution of the local problem for if patients from other counties are cared for here the revenue thus afforded would help in meeting the general expenses.

ACCIDENTS TO HORSES

It was reported yesterday that two accidents which might have been very costly happened to horses being shipped to this city for the races today and tomorrow.

A bay mare belonging to S. W. Ray of Wyoming, Illinois, was being shipped in a box car with two other horses belonging to the same party. The train crew evidently forgot that the car contained live stock and made a flying switch throwing the mare a complete somersault, resulting in several minor bruises. Another horse was being brought from Hulls in a truck and just as the truck reached the edge of the city the horse broke his strap and fell backwards from the truck, but luckily only sustained a few minor bruises and scratches.

AGED COUNTY RESIDENT IS VERY ILL

Thomas Stringer, who is without doubt one of the oldest residents of Morgan county, is seriously ill at his home in Lynnsville precinct. Mr. Stringer is past ninety-seven years of age and until recent months has been of vigorous health and able to perform many duties around his farm home. More recently he became ill and his condition is growing more serious each day.

HIGH RATE ON ORANGES

It is an old saying that "the consumer pays the freight." This was well illustrated yesterday morning when a car of oranges arrived in Jacksonville bearing freight charges of $698.45 for freight alone besides other large charges added for refrigeration etc. The oranges were from California.

PASSENGER DELAYED

Wabash passenger train No. 8 which is due to arrive in Jacksonville at 12:55 A. M. was two and one half hours late Wednesday morning caused by the derailment of a car of pig iron at Bluffs blocking the track before the passenger train reached that point.

Lynnsville M. E. church will hold a hamburger and ice cream supper Thursday evening, July 19.

LIFELONG RESIDENT OF COUNTY IS DEAD

Mrs. Julia A. Beckman of Pisgah Passed Away Wednesday Morning—Funeral to be Held Friday Afternoon.

At 3:40 a. m. yesterday Mrs. Julia A. Beckman quietly breathed her last at Our Saviour's hospital where she had been a patient for several weeks. She had been failing in health for a number of years and she was glad to be released and go to join the Master and her loved ones in heaven.

Mrs. Beckman was the only daughter of the late Judge Samuel Wood who was at one time a widely known, wealthy and influential man in the county. He was a member of the county board during the erection of the present courthouse and was a member of the state legislature and in all his public and private life he was the soul of honor and integrity.

He was married in early life to Mrs. Martha Smith and at that time used to say that his worldly wealth consisted of twenty-five cents and a pocket knife but industry, integrity and superior ability placed him in the front ranks of the citizens of the county. He was a director and one of the founders of the Jacksonville National Bank and was largely interested in other ways.

Mrs. Beckman was born at the family residence in Pisgah precinct June 17, 1847 and her entire life was spent in that locality. She grew to a beautiful womanhood, always ready for every good word and work. Her parents were leading members in Union Baptist church and it was during a gathering of the people of that denomination that she met a young man, James B. Beckman of Menard county and in due time they were married, she at the age of 16, and began housekeeping not far from the church.

Mr. Beckman soon took a commanding position in business and religious affairs. As a side issue he was an auctioneer and cried many a sale and when he grew older and didn't care for more engagements he had hard work to deny his many friends who wanted his services in that line. He was taken away Feb. 20, 1921.

That home was a place of unbounded hospitality; ministers, laymen and friends as well as strangers always being welcome there. In work for the church and welfare of the community, Mrs. Beckman and her husband were always foremost and sorely have they been missed at Union Baptist church.

Mrs. Beckman leaves two sons, George S. and William B. Beckman, both of Pisgah precinct, and Mrs. Mary Ausmus of this city. She also leaves several grandchildren and great grandchildren. She leaves also two brothers, R. S. Wood, southeast of the city, and George Wood of Franklin precinct. Four brothers have preceded her in death.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Gillham Funeral Home at 2 p. m. Friday in charge of Rev. D. McKenna, a Baptist minister of Alton. Burial will be in Diamond Grove cemetery.

Right of Way Practically Secured and Bids Will be Asked by State August 29.

As before indicated, it is the purpose to pave from the city limits south a distance of about five miles. The right of way has been secured except in one instance, where condemnation proceedings will be brought. This is a friendly proceeding made necessary by certain conditions of ownership.

MANY FRESHMEN MAKE RESERVATIONS AT I. C.

One Hundred and Six Young Men and Women Send Fees to Hold Place in Big Class—Old Students Will Return in Large Numbers.

Although it is yet two months until the opening of Illinois college, one hundred and six Freshmen have made reservations to date. Seventy-one young men and thirty-five young women have sent the necessary reservation fee, to insure themselves a place in the Freshman class. At this rate of reservation, the quota of 150 Freshmen, which the college will take for the coming year, will be filled long before the opening of the term. This is all the students that can be accommodated under the new rule of limiting the Freshman class.

Indications now are that a larger number of upper classmen than usual will return for the coming college year. It is expected to have all college dormitories full to capacity.

LOCAL GIRL WILL ENJOY WESTERN TRIP

Miss Clara Flynn who has been visiting at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Seymour, on East Morgan street, will leave Sunday for her home in St. Louis. She will be accompanied home by Miss Faye Carroll of this city who, after spending several days with her, will go to Colorado Springs for a visit at the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. A. Carroll. Mrs. Carroll and her niece will later in the summer go to Eldora, Colorado, where the former has a cottage, and will also visit in Pueblo.

Interest in a picture of the children that made today, grows as they grow.

MANY SUGGESTIONS MAILED TO C. OF C.

Questionnaires on the formation of a new program of work for the Chamber of Commerce are being returned to the office and contain many valuable suggestions of the members. The questionnaires were sent out with the biennial report of the organization. As fast as they are returned, the office force is compiling the planks of the program of work for the coming two years. Practically all the questionnaires contain suggestions for industrial development in the city. The need of new homes is also stressed by some of the members. An industrial development coupled with a building boom in the city would mean some real progress. There are plenty of factories ready to move from the larger cities and locate in smaller places. There is no reason why Jacksonville should not have its share of growth as a result of this general movement. Smoke stacks and dinner pails form the backbone of every growing city.
